

A NEW BREATH TO THE BIG BAND CULTURE;
Halil İbrahim Işık's "BOSPHORUS BIG BAND"

Halil İbrahim Işık's "Bosphorus Big Band's" debut album "BA-BE" is now available through Lin Records.

With the album "BA-BE", Halil İbrahim Işık's "Bosphorus Big Band" meets its audience and brings a breath of fresh air to the international music industry's rooted Big Band culture.

The album, consisting of covers of "A Time for Love", "Cute", "The Days of Wine and Roses" and "Stolen Moments" and the title track "BA-BE", composed and arranged by Halil İbrahim Işık, is now available on all digital platforms.

Bosphorus Big Band was founded by Halil İbrahim Işık and consists of the finest musicians of Turkey:

Volkan Öktem, Ferit Odman and Ediz Hafızođlu on Drums, Kađan Yıldız and Ozan Musluođlu on Contrabass, Çađdaş Oruç on Saxophones, Bulut Gülen, Hakan Çimenot and Ali Emre Kayhan on Trombones, Cem Tuncer on Guitar and Halil İbrahim Işık on Trumpets and Piano.

The album was recorded in Halil İbrahim Işık's own Studio Keyboardistanbul.

In addition to playing its own repertoire, Halil İbrahim Işık's "Bosphorus Big Band", was designed to accompany international jazz artists who perform in Turkey. The band assumes an important mission in making sure the invited guest artists are in safe hands.
